REQUEST FOR CERTIFICATION OF CORRECTION

UNDER 35 U.S.C. 254, 37 C.F.R 1.322 & MPEP 1480

Pursuant to the provisions of 35 U.S.C. 254, 37 C.F.R 1.322 & MPEP 1480, please enter the attached Certificate of Correction.

At claim 19: this change corrects a clerical/printing error made by the PTO; the PTO can verify that the additional language presented for inclusion is found in the Examiner's amendment of January 28, 2004. On page 5 of such amendment the PTO can see that the language to be inserted now for claim 19 (at that time claim 224) was apparently inadvertently not included as a result of a clerical error in the final printed version of the claim;

Corrections for claims 18, 71, 77, 79, 81 and 83 also concern PTO clerical errors, in which the text of claims which had been amended were instead erroneously duplicated and then printed in unamended form. Thus these claims should not have been printed in the published patent. That is:

At claim 18: this claim was erroneously printed and all text should be deleted. Original claim 228 (see Amendment dated March 24, 2003) was amended, resulting in issued claim 19 (which has errors to be corrected as noted above). The printer nonetheless mistakenly printed original claim 228 again (with errors again) as issued claim 18.

At claim 71: this claim was erroneously printed and all text should be deleted. Original claim 282 (see Amendment dated March 24, 2003) was amended, resulting in issued claim 72. The printer nonetheless mistakenly printed claim 282 again (unamended) as issued claim 71.

At claim 77: this claim was erroneously printed and all text should be deleted. Original claim 290 (see Amendment dated March 24, 2003) was amended, resulting in issued claim 78. The printer nonetheless mistakenly printed claim 290 again (unamended) as issued claim 77.

MAR 20 2006

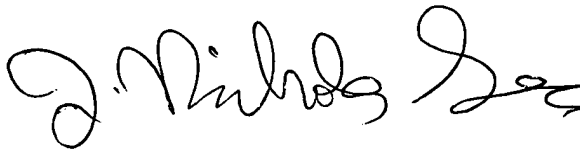

At claim 79: this claim was erroneously printed and all text should be deleted. Original claim 292 (see Amendment dated March 24, 2003) was amended, resulting in issued claim 80. The printer nonetheless mistakenly printed claim 292 again (unamended) as issued claim 79.

At claim 81: this claim was erroneously printed and all text should be deleted. Original claim 294 (see Amendment dated March 24, 2003) was amended, resulting in issued claim 82. The printer nonetheless mistakenly printed claim 294 again (unamended) as issued claim 81.

At claim 83: this claim was erroneously printed and all text should be deleted. Original claim 296 (see Amendment dated March 24, 2003) was amended, resulting in issued claim 84. The printer nonetheless mistakenly printed claim 296 again (unamended) as issued claim 83.

In view of the above, issuance of the Certificate of Correction is respectfully requested.

No fees are believed to be due; in the event of any charges please debit the same from deposit account no. 501-244.
